DOUGLASS DUFEE REED, TAKEN WHEN 31 DAYS OLD. BORN OCT. 3, 1905.

The youngest descendant of Thomas Durfee, of the 10th generation, known to his grandfather, the compiler of this work.

"I think, when I read that sweet story of old,
When Jesus was here among men,
How He called little children as lambs to his fold,
I should like to have been with them then."

PREFACE.

The First Volume of this work covers the first six generations of the descendants of Thomas Durfee, of Portsmouth, R. I. (born 1643 in England) and this, the Second Volume, is a continuation of the record, bringing forward from the First Volume each person, surnamed Durfee, therein mentioned (in the sixth generation that married), continuing the account to date; the children in last records being in the tenth generation.

These two volumes cover all data of the descendants of Thomas Durfee that can be verified by township records of New England and the Bible records of families in various parts of the United States of America.

The descendants (if any) of Richard, son of Richard (the 2d son of Thomas Durfee) have no record that has been found, which identifies them as such; however it is presumed that one Capt. Richard Durfee, who lived at New London, Conn., about 1730 to 174-, was probably that person.

There were a large number of Durfeys born in Connecticut, descendants of Joseph and Ann (Buck) Durfey, which tradition claims to be descendants of Thomas Durfee. A record of a large number of these people has been collected by the compiler of this work, also other Durfee families living in Vermont and Rhode Island that are unable to give record of their ancestor, but as it does not appear, from any record of emigrants that came to the United Colonies of America prior to the Revolution, that any Durfees, Durfeys, or Durpheys came, it is probable that all who trace their lineage to a Durfee living in New England before that period were descendants of Thomas Durfee; that by reason of neglect of filing records of families or parts of families in the customary way of their time, a loss of identification has resulted.

In closing this work the compiler wishes to impress his kindred with some thought of the sacred relations these pages reveal.

1st.—That “it is not all of life to live.”

2d.—“What are these among so many” was spoken on the mountain side centuries ago, when more than five thousand were fed with a few loaves and fishes by Him who could say I and my Father are one; our Heavenly Father blessed the family of Thomas Durfee, once confined to the limits of the town of Portsmouth, R. I., and his posterity are numbered in part only, by the two volumes of this work.

3d.—In the war for independence more than 90 per cent. of the then living male descendants of Mr. Durfee were enrolled in the Revolutionary Army; in the war to maintain the Union more than 300 of his descendants served in the Union Army, while not more than about 20 that were of his name were in the opposing force.

The marching on of this host of kindred has brought them into all the walks of life that lead to that which is best.

Long before the Christian era these words were written: “There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.” As in the past, so I trust in the coming years, these kindred will march on, seeking to do only that which seems right in the sight of their Heavenly Parent. The first miracle of the Savior was performed at a marriage, thus forever putting his seal of approval on the sacred relations which precede the home and through which human life is extended; and later told of the manner of entrance to the heavenly home by His words, “Ye must be born again;” as we love the relations of this life let us not fail to acquire title to the eternal home, and looking to, and trusting in God, say in the language of the Psalmist, “So teach us to number our days that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.”

Son of John and Mary (Peck) Durfee (or Durfey), of Norwich, Conn., and Dalton, Mass. born in Pittsfield, Mass., March 14, 1792; died in Coopersville, Mich., March 3, 1871; married October 19, 1815, to HANNAH HATCH, of New Canaan, N. Y., daughter of John Hatch; born in New Canaan, N. Y., February 10, 1793; died in Newark Valley, N. Y., March 12, 1844.

Their children were:

846.—1st. Henry Clinton, born September 13, 1816.

847.—2d. Lyman Dwight, born October 2, 1819.

848.—3d. Lois Angeline, born October 26, 1821.

849.—4th. Emily Peck, born July 21, 1824.

850.—5th. Mary Ann, born October 11, 1831.

374. Durfee, Harvey (John 5th, John 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Son of John and Mary (Peck) Durfee, of Norwich, Conn., and Dalton, Mass.; born in Pittsfield, Mass., November 26, 1793; died in Coopersville, Mich., July 23, 1877; married HARRIET WALL, of Owego, N. Y. She was divorced in 1847. Mr. DUFFEE was a soldier in the War of 1812, and took up land in Michigan on his claim as a soldier. He was a cloth weaver by trade.

376. Durfee, Calvin, Rev. (John 5th, John 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Son of John and Mary (Peck) Durfee, of Norwich, Conn., and Dalton, Mass.; born in Pittsfield, Mass., October 6, 1797; died in Williamstown, Mass., November 21, 1879; married in Great Barrington, Mass., in May, 1828, to MARIA BECKWITH, of Great Barrington, Mass.; she died in August, 1830; he married a second time, in Brookline, Mass., August 15, 1831, to SARAH TAPPAN PIERCE, of Brookline, Mass., daughter of Rev. John D. D. and Lucy (Tappan) Pierce, born in Brookline, Mass., March 4, 1803; died in 1853.

Their children were:

851.—1st. Lucy Pierce, born in Brookline, Mass., June 19, 1835.

852.—2d. John Pierce, born at South Dedham, Mass., December 18, 1838.

853.—3d. Charles Stoddard, born at South Dedham, Mass., July 22, 1844.

The following sketch of the life of Rev. CALVIN DURFEE was furnished by members of the family of his son, Rev. CHAS. S. DURFEE:

"When he was about three years old his father removed to West Stockbridge, Mass., where they lived on the large farm of Col. ELIJAH WILLIAMS, brother of the founder of WILLIAMS COLLEGE. When he was fourteen years old he went to reside with his brother-in-law, ZALMON T. BRADLEY, at Great Barrington, Mass.; in 1816 he made a profession of religion, and united with the Congregational Church in that place. He began his studies to fit for college at Lenox Academy in 1819, and entered Williams College in 1822. His winters were spent in teaching school. He left college in 1825 to become the assistant to the Principal of Westfield Academy. Leaving Westfield he commenced the study of theology; was licensed to preach in 1826. In 1827 he was called to supply the church at Hunter, N. Y., where he was successful, and was there ordained pastor of the Presbyterian Church in April, 1828. In after years he was pastor at South Dedham, Mass., and at Brooklyn, Ohio; later he became the financial agent of Williams College, and supplied the pulpit of the South Congregational Church of Williamstown, Mass. Some of his writings and addresses were printed. He was a strong advocate of temperance. His descendants have reflected credit upon his character as they went out to tell the story of the Cross."

377. Durfee, Edward (John 5th, John 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Son of John and Mary (Peck) Durfee, of Norwich, Conn., and Dalton, Mass.; born in Pittsfield, Mass., March 3, 1800; died in Binghamton, N. Y., May 17, 1877; married at Whitneys Point, N. Y., December 7, 1830, to LUCY JOHNSON, of Whitneys Point, N. Y., daughter of Chauncey and Polly (Gregory) Johnson; born December 13, 1802; died in Binghamton, N. Y., June 6, 1885.

Mr. DURFEE was a carpenter and builder while he resided at Union Side, Whitneys Point, and Binghamton, N. Y., removing to the latter place in 1859; he was for many years steward and class leader in the M. E. Church at Whitneys Point; his home was the home of ministers. In politics he was a Democrat. He left the record of an unspotted life.

Their children were:

854.—1st. Anna Eliza, born July 3, 1832.

855.—2d. Chauncey J., born January 3, 1834.

856.—3d. George Calvin, born March 11, 1836; died October 31, 1863, in the Union Army, on Folly Island, near Charleston, S. C., of chronic diarrhœa. Enlisted in Co. H, 89th N. Y. Vol. Inf., Nov. 16, 1861, at Binghamton, N. Y.; unmarried.

857.—4th. Eveline Taylor, born April 24, 1838.

378. Durfee, Horatio (John 5th, John 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Son of John and Mary (Peck) Durfee, of Norwich, Conn., and Dalton, Mass.; Born in West Stockbridge, Mass., April 18, 1802; died in Newark, N. Y., 1860; married, October 28, 1829, to RACHEL LOOMIS, of Maine, N. Y., daughter of Abijah and Margaret (Rowe) Loomis; born July 4, 1801; died in (probably) Newark, N. Y., September 18, 1858.

Their children were:

858.—1st. Henry Martin, born October 11, 1823.

864.—5th. Frances Amelia, born April —, 1839; died June 28, 1855.

865.—6th. Marietta, born August 24, 1843; died in Carbondale, Pa., May 2, 1847.

866.—7th. Thomas Randle, born July 30, 1849.

Mr. JOHN REED DUFEE removed from Maine, N. Y., to Carbondale, Pa., in 1836, where he engaged in the lumber business; he had been for years previous to that time employed principally at his trade as carpenter and builder. In 1856, with his son, ADDISON B., he went into the livery business, under the firm name of DUFEE & SON. He sold his property at Carbondale in 1867, and purchased a home in Owego, N. Y., where he spent the remaining years of his life. During the time he lived at Owego he traveled extensively, and contributed many articles printed in the Advance, a paper published in Carbondale, Pa.; later he had all his writings printed in a book entitled "Reminiscences of Carbondale." He fondly read the Bible, but both he and his wife were believers in Spiritualism, although they were attendants of the Christian Church where they resided. Mr. DUFEE's funeral services were held in the Episcopal Church at Carbondale, and seven years later the burial service of Mrs. Durfee was conducted at the residence of her son, Addison B., at Carbondale, by the rector of Trinity Church, and by the side of her husband, in Maplewood Cemetery, Carbondale, Pa., she was laid to rest.

380. Durfee, Amasa (John 5th, John 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Son of John and Mary (Peck) Durfee, of Norwich, Conn., and Dalton, Mass.; born in West Stockbridge, Mass., January 7, 1806; married —.

Mrs. JOSEPH HATHAWAY, of Maine, N. Y., was the daughter of Mr. DUFEE.

381. Durfee, Mary (John 5th, John 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Daughter of John and Mary (Peck) Durfee of Norwich, Conn., and Dalton, Mass.; born in West Stockbridge, Mass., January 10, 1810; married SAMUEL LESURE, born April 22, 1810.

Their children were:

1st.—HARVEY FREDERICK LESURE, born March 30, 1833.

2d.—ANGELINE LESURE, born October 12, 1834.

3d.—ELLEN L. LESURE, born February 6, 1838.

4th.—MARY SUSANNAH LESURE, born ———.

382. Durfee, David H. (Walter 5th, Peleg 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Son of Walter and Anna (Ashley) Durfee, of Freetown, Mass., and West Chazy, N. Y.; born in Benson, Vt., November 19, 1794; died at Arkwright, Chautauqua Co., N. Y., June 30, 1864; married at Putnam, Washington Co., N. Y., November 20, 1831, to LURETTA BUTTERFIELD, of Putnam, N. Y., daughter of William and Lucy (———) Butterfield; born in Putnam, N. Y., and died at Arkwright, N. Y., in December, 1844.

Their children were:

867.—1st. Lucy Ann, born in Benson, Vt., February 22, 1833.

868.—2d. Emily Jane, born in Arkwright, N. Y., December 10, 1834.

869.—3d. Eli Riley, born in Arkwright, N. Y., November 8, 1838.

Mr. DURFEE married a second time in Arkwright, N. Y., to LUCINDA GRIFFIF. They had one child.

870.—1st. Annette, born in Arkwright, N. Y.

DAVID H. DURFEE lived in Benson, Vt., until after his first child was born, when he removed to Arkwright, N. Y. His second wife is said to have removed to Wisconsin when her daughter was quite young.

Mrs. D. MARK, who resided in Belvidere, Neb., in 1897, at that time wrote that her uncle, DAVID H. DURFEE, was "a very hard working man, he never had any mercy on himself and was not careful of others, no weather was too stormy or cold for him to be out, and the longest days in summer he was at work from the first dawn of day till dark; and when he was a young man was badly crippled with rheumatism, but he was always on the go, working all the time when he could hardly move one foot before the other. I don't doubt but what he might have lived many years longer if he had cared for his health."

384. Durfee, Polly (Walter 5th, Peleg 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Daughter of Walter and Anna (Ashley) Durfee, of Freetown, Mass., and West Chazy, N. Y.; born in Benson, Vt., February 22, 1798; died in 1855; married GAIUS BRIGGS. They had no children. Mrs. Mark writes that at one time her aunt (Mrs. BRIGGS) "was hunting eggs in the barn and fell from the loft to the floor, striking her neck on something and dislocated it. The Dr. said that it would have killed anybody but a DURFEE."

"Once when her husband was bitten by a rattle-snake she sucked the poison from the wound and saved his life."

385. Durfee, Hannah (Walter 5th, Peleg 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Daughter of Walter and Anna (Ashley) Durfee, of Freetown, Mass., and West Chazy, N. Y.; born in Benson, Vt., February 14, 1800; married SPENCER MCCOMBER.

Their children were many.

The records of this family have not been received; it has been said that the children were of more than ordinary intelligence; also that a number of them died young.

386. Durfee, Darius (Walter 5th, Peleg 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Son of Walter and Anna Ashley Durfee, of Freetown, Mass., and West Chazy, N. Y.; born in Benson, Vt., July 10, 1802; died in Cannonsburg, Mich., April 13, 1860; married in Craven Co., N. C., October 28, 1827, to MARY TINGLE, of Craven Co., near Newbern, N. C.; daughter of Perry and Rhoda (Vendrake) Tingle; born near Newbern, N. C., February 14, 1803; died in Monroe, Ohio, June 25, 1885.

Their children were:

871.—1st. Eliza Ann, born in N. C., October 22, 1828.

872.—2d. Elias H., born in N. C., May 4, 1832.

873.—3d. Philena, born in Benson, Vt., April 29, 1835.

874.—4th. Benjamin F., born in Arkwright, Chautauqua Co., N. Y., December 27, 1836.

875.—5th. Henry B., born in Arkwright, Chautauqua

Co., N. Y., July 10, 1838; living, 1904, in Madison, O., unmarried.

876.—6th. Hosea N., born in Arkwright, Chautauqua Co., N. Y., December 22, 1840; died in Mich., about 1869; unmarried.

Mr. DUFFEE went to North Carolina where he met and married his wife (MARY TINGLE) and after his first two children were born returned to Benson, Vt., removing from there to Arkwright, N. Y., and later to Ashtabula Co., Ohio. At one time he held a commission as a captain of a company of militia in Craven Co., N. C. All of his sons enlisted in the Union army in the war of '61-'65. HENRY was rejected on account of defective eyesight. ELIAS died in a Confederate prison, leaving three children.

387. Durfee, Simeon Ashley (Walter 5th, Peleg 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Son of Walter and Anna (Ashley) Durfee, of Freetown, Mass., and West Chazy, N. Y.; born in Benson, N. Y., February 22, 1804; died in Australia in April, 1854; married in Castleton, Vt., July 3, 1831, to AMANDA HERRICK, of Castleton, Vt., daughter of Samuel and Anna (Disbury) Herrick; born in Hartford, Vt., April 12, 1814; died in Eau Claire, Wis., November 25, 1878.

Their children were:

877.—1st. ———, born ———, 1832; died in childhood.

878.—2d. Clarissa, born in Benson, Vt., September 13, 1833.

879.—3d. Julia, born in Castile, N. Y., July 13, 1835.

880.—4th. Amanda, born in Nunda, N. Y., April 24, 1837.

881.—5th. Leonora, born in Nunda, N. Y., October 20, 1838.

882.—6th. George W., born in Ossian, N. Y., November 3, 1841.

883.—7th. Thomas Jefferson, born in Ossian, N. Y., August 21, 1843.

884.—8th. Amelia, born in Ossian, N. Y., August 18, 1846.

885.—9th. Madison Ari, born in Ossian, N.Y., September 12, 1848.

Mr. SIMEON A. DURFEE at one time was captain of a company of militia, and held office as a magistrate; he was probably residing, in October, 1834, at Benson, Vt., when he was one of the petitioners to the legislature for reimbursement for money expended to provide a carriage for a cannon, which was granted. In 1848 or '9, he went to California, and from there to Australia, where he lost his life by drowning.

388. Durfee, Anna (Walter 5th, Peleg 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Daughter of Walter and Anna (Ashley) Durfee, of Freetown, Mass., and West Chazy, N. Y.; born in Benson, Vt., May 16, 1806; married DARIUS SCOVILLE. Mrs. SCOVILLE married a second time to JAMES MURPHY.

389. Durfee, Melintha (Walter 5th, Peleg 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Daughter of Walter and Anna (Ashley) Durfee, of Freetown, Mass., and West Chazy, N. Y.; born in Benson, Vt., April 25, 1808; married HEMAN BARBER.

Their children were: 1st.—MILO BARBER. 2d.—JANE BARBER. 3d.—ELI BARBER.

390. Durfee, Aaron M. (Walter 5th, Peleg 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Son of Walter and Anna (Ashley) Durfee, of Freetown, Mass., and West Chazy, N. Y.; born in Benson, Vt., April 19, 1810; living, 1905, at French Creek, Chautauqua Co., N. Y.; married November 18, 1830, to JANE BUTTERFIELD, of Putnam, Washington Co., N. Y., daughter of William and Lucy Johnson Butterfield; born in Putnam, N. Y., in ———, 1815; died at French Creek, N. Y., in March, 1884.

Their children were:

886.—1st. Walter W., born January 8, 1832.

887.—2d. Frances A., born February 23, 1834.

888.—3d. Cynthia A., born July 24, 1835.

889.—4th. Ellen O., born May 16, 1837.

890.—5th. Child, boy, born October 24, 1838; died October 27, 1838.

891.—6th. Delilah H., born October 22, 1840.

892.—7th. Arlin B., born April 6, 1842; died March 8, 1862.

893.—8th. Alice M., born July 6, 1845.

894.—9th. Grace, born September 4, 1850; died September 1, 1851.

Mr. DUFFEE married a second time, January 28, 1885, to JOANNA (GROVER) ANGEVINE, daughter of Asa and Elizabeth (Cole) Grover (Asa Grover served in war of 1812), widow of a Baptist minister, whose grandfather Grover was a soldier in the Revolutionary Army; her family of four children by her first husband had all died, her grandson, a Methodist minister, was living in Cory, Pa., in 1903, editor of The Benjamite. She had a granddaughter living; both having families of four children each. Mr. Durfee was at one time a lieutenant in a company of militia. He worked at the carpenter's trade, and was a farmer; was a member of the Union Baptist or Christian Church. In politics he was a Prohibitionist. He stated in letters received from him in 1897 that he had not lived within a hundred miles of any of his relatives for sixty years. His son, ARLIN B. DUFFEE, enlisted at French Creek, N. Y., September 25, 1861, as a private in Co. B, 9th N. Y. Cav., and died of disease in the hospital of his regiment at Camp Fenton, Washington, D. C., March 8, 1862; was buried at his home in French Creek, N. Y. His daughter, Mrs. DELILAH H. MARKS, stated in her letter of June 3, 1897, that Mr. DUFFEE resided at Benson, Vt., in the house where he was born, until about September, 1835, when he removed from there to Arkwright, N. Y., where his brother DAVID had gone to live, and moved from there to his present home in November, 1852. He was a Whig until the Abolition party organized. His home was on the line of what was called the Underground Railroad, and his house one of its stations. Many poor slaves were helped to gain their liberty through his assistance. Later he worked hard for the principles the Republican party represented. He has always been a good reader, deciding political questions for himself, working for what he thought to be right with his whole soul, voice and vote. His daughter, Mrs. ALICE M. (DURFEE) PAGE, wrote of the family as follows: "There never was a Democrat or drunkard in our family; as far as I know all are temperate, industrious, honest, honorable and truthful; none are cripples, insane or idiots; loyal and true to country."

391. Durfee, Fanny (Walter 5th, Peleg 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Daughter of Walter and Anna (Ashley) Durfee, of Freetown, Mass., and West Chazy, N. Y. born in Benson, Vt., March 27, 1813; married Rensselear Doubleday.

services obtained marked distinction in the crisis of the Dorr Rebellion of 1842 and 1843.

"In addition to his judicial labors Chief Justice Durfee found time for some literary work of a high order," an oration on "The Influence of Scientific Discovery and Invention, before the Phi Beta Kappa Society of Brown University, September 6, 1842." The Panidea, or "An Omnipresent Reason considered as the Creative and Sustaining Logos," published in 1846, and a discourse delivered before the R. I. Historical Society, January 13, 1847. While in his seclusion on his farm when not in official life, he wrote a poem; a small edition of it under the title of "What Cheer," or "Roger Williams in Banishment," was published in Providence, R. I., in 1832. He remained in office as CHIEF JUSTICE until his death; he was buried in the family burying ground on Quaket. The "epitaph on the grave stone was dictated by himself" and concludes with the representation of an anchor and the words "His trust was and is in God." A memoir of his life was published by his son Thomas, having been prepared at the request of the New England Historical and Genealogical Society, of which Mr. DURFEE had been a member.

449. Durfee, Charles (Thomas 5th, John 4th, Job 3d, Thomas 2d, Thomas 1st). Son of Thomas and Mary (Lowden) Durfee, of Tiverton, R. I.; born in Tiverton, R. MR. CHARLES DURFEE resided at the home of his father, JUDGE THOMAS DURFEE, in Tiverton, R. I.; at his father's death he succeeded him in the office of Surveyor of Customs for the Port of Tiverton, R. I.; the date of his first appointment being March 11, 1829; he was continued in this office until some time in 1841. He was a Justice of the Peace in 1841 and 1843; became Town Clerk in 1841, in which office he was continued until his death. He was an amateur artist, painted portraits of many of the members of his own family and of his friends and relatives; a number of these paintings are choice relics in the homes of his kindred; the portraits of his brother (Chief Justice Job Durfee) and wife are excellent.

MR. DURFEE was a Whig in politics, and in his religious affiliations a Unitarian, while MRS. DURFEE was a member of the Baptist Church.

The Durfee homestead has passed into the hands of strangers, but the family burying ground (see cut in 1st volume) east of the house is well protected and preserved; the graves are marked with white marble stones; the graves of the parents of Mr. Durfee are there, also members of the family that died in Tiverton; the following is a copy of the inscription on Mr. Durfee's gravestone:

"CHARLES DURFEE, ESQ."

"Died October 7, 1849, aged 56 years."

"Amid the scenes where first he drew his breath and dwelt content through life he sleeps in death, pure and guileless, quiet, kind and true.

Shut from the world no worldly greed he knew,

but loving nature with a docile heart,

Became an artist though unschooled in art, and to all ties found faithful to the end,

Expired beloved as Husband, Father, Friend."

JOSEPH STILLWELL, the father of MRS. DURFEE, was a soldier in the Revolutionary army; when he applied for a pension "he stated in his declaration that he enlisted for the first nine months of the war and was attached to CAPT. WM. COOKES' Company of the Rhode Island regiment, commanded by COL. CHURCH, and under which officer he marched to Boston, where he was detached from CAPT. COOKES' company and became a member of General Lee's Life Guard, in which capacity he served out his term of enlistment. He then enlisted for twelve months in the company of infantry commanded by CAPT. SPURR, in the regiment commanded by COL. OLNEY or COL. HITCHCOCK, and soon after was again detached to become one of Gen. Lee's Life Guards, and served as such until the expiration of the second term of enlistment."

After that on his return home he met GEN. GREEN on Long Island and agreed to act as an express rider for the term of six months, at the end of which time he was discharged; again enlisted (date not stated) for nine months and joined the army at White Plains, where he performed the duty of a teamster for the term of his enlistment; afterwards enlisted and served nine months more as a teamster, but the date of such service and the officers under whom he served are not definitely known although it is probable that the service was rendered during the year 1779. He resided in Tiverton, R. I., April 9, 1818, when he made application for his pension and stated that he was at that time sixty-seven years old. He was present December 28, 1808, at a meeting to organize the Third Baptist Church of Tiverton, as a delegate from the Second Baptist Church (which is now in Fall River, Mass.).

551. Durfee, Thomas (William 5th, David 4th, David 3d, William 2d, Thomas 1st). Son of Capt. William and Orpha (Bennett) Durfee, of Tiverton, R. I.; born in Tiverton, R. I., 1802; died in Wyoming, N. Y., February 14, 1850. His death was accidental, while hunting with a party, a coon had been driven up a tree, which the hunters chopped down; as the tree was falling Mr. Durfee thought the dog was in danger, and in his efforts to drive the dog from the tree was struck by one of the branches, producing immediate death.

He removed from Tiverton, R. I., to Middleburgh, Wyoming Co., N. Y., in 1831. "He was supervisor and held other town offices, owned at one time nearly 400 acres of land in the States of New York and Michigan." See Hist. of Wyoming Co., N. Y.)

MR. DURFEE's mother "lived in Rhode Island during the Revolutionary War; one day when she was about 12 years old, some British officers entered the house, and in a scuffle which ensued she was thrown on her face and her nose broken by the concussion."

MR. DUFEE married in Tiverton, R. I., to SARAH ORSWELL, of Tiverton, daughter of Benjamin and AMY DUFEE) ORSWELL, born in Tiverton, May 5, 1804; died in Wyoming, N. Y., May 25, 1883.

MR. EPHRAIM S. DURFEE was a man with many remarkable faculties; his early interest in work of construction would indicate that by profession he was a master builder.

The following statement was published relative to him by the Wisconsin Historical Society in Vol. 10, of 1883 and 1885.

"EPHRAIM S. DURFEE died at Poygan about May 5, 1882, at the great age of nearly 97; born in Rhode Island in 1785, and reaching manhood, he removed to Salina, N. Y., and engaged in contracting for the construction of public works. He became a prominent member of the Masonic Fraternity, and removing to Rochester, he there conferred the degrees of apprentice and fellow-craft upon WILLIAM MORGAN, the reputed exposé of Masonry.

In regard to MORGAN, MR. DURFEE was of the opinion that he never wrote the book credited to him; but that it was the production of some one else over MORGAN's signature, and that its purpose was political effect rather than a blow at the order; DURFEE reasoned that MORGAN having, as he believed, received but two degrees in Masonry, could not have produced the work which evinced familiarity with mysteries of which he had no knowledge.

The disappearance of MORGAN, and the subsequent anti-Masonic excitement, rendered Rochester so uncomfortable for members of the order, that Durfee and others repaired to Canada for quiet and safety, where he remained until 1845, when he settled on a farm adjoining Oshkosh, Wis.

So hardy was he that on his ninety-fourth birthday he sowed some grain, chopped three-quarters of a cord of wood, made an axe handle, and called on several of his friends.

He served under GENERAL SCOTT at Lundy's Lane and other battles on the Michigan frontier, but declined to apply for a pension, saying that he was amply compensated for his services."

Through some correspondence with his only daughter, Mrs. SARAH ALICE GLOVER, residing at No. 622 High St., Oshkosh, Wis., the following facts have been deducted:

He was a soldier in the War of 1812, and lived at the time of Mrs. GLOVER's birth in Crystal Lake, McHenry Co., Ill. He held several city offices; built the first bridge across the Fox River in the city of Oshkosh, Wis.; when he came to live there in 1842, it was a wilderness, with only five houses.

RUTH (DURFEY) BEACH came with her father and his family from Killingly, Conn., to Smithfield, Pa., in 1815; she taught school in the vicinity of her new home. The following is from a letter her daughter, Mrs. S. W. Gerould, wrote for the information of the compiler of these records:

"There was no state appropriations then to help the schools. A school house would be built by subscription and a committee of three men were chosen to run the school; money was hard to get, so they bargained to pay her in wheat and rye.

At the close of the term of school her father went around and gathered up the grain, after which he would go with Ruth to a store and receive pay for the grain in trade."

"TRUMAN MILLER BEACH (the husband of RUTH DURFEY) was brought up on a farm, coming from his native state with his parents to Smithfield, Pa., in 1818. His advantages for education were limited to the chances in a settlement of the then new country. He acquired most of his learning by studying without the help of a teacher. When a young man he taught school in the winter for ten years; he was noted for his aptness in controlling his scholars as well as his faculty to interest them in their studies."

"He never struck one of his scholars a blow, or used any cruel methods in governing them, as was the general practice in those days."

"He was a successful farmer; in politics a Democrat, until the formation of the Republican party, when he espoused the cause of the new party.

"He and his wife were members of the M. E. Church. He always did effective work in the Church as a class leader, steward and Sunday-school superintendent."

The following from a letter of Mrs. Gerould will not fail to interest her kindred:

"My mother (RUTH (DURFEY) BEACH) often entertained her children with recollections of her early years; she told us of her home on the farm in Killingly, Conn., of the hill on one side dignified by the name of Mt. Hope, of the spring from which flowed the brook running near the house; of the duck that layed her eggs while sitting on its waters, 70 of them in one year; she told of how the younger children were left at home one Sunday with their grandfather (JOHN JENCKES DURFEY) while her father and mother and older children were at church. They were never allowed to play on Sunday. While the old gentleman was taking a nap they went slyly away to the barn to play and were soon surprised by his coming for them; in their haste to get away EUNICE jumped from above to the barn floor and sprained her ankle, while RUTH ran to the house and hid under a bed, not daring to come out for a long time.

"When about 8½ years old (Nov., 1815) her father having sold his part of the farm, they moved to Smithfield, Pa.; we were told about the journey, about the two yokes of oxen for each family that drew the household goods and older children, and the one horse and wagon that carried the mother and babies; how they crossed the Hudson river on a ferry boat, etc.

"The coming of a stepmother with a family of children to divide the house and mar their peace, probably more than any other reason, sent David Durfee and his family into the wilderness of northern Pennsylvania."

MRS. MARK married a second time at Arkwright, N. Y., February 12, 1865, to ALBA B. FOX, of Dunkirk, N. Y., from whom she was divorced at Buffalo, N. Y., in September, 1872. MR. FOX died in January, 1873. MRS. FOX married a third time in Bridgeport, Conn., May 2, 1880, to GEORGE BROADBROOK, of Bridgeport, Conn., who was born in Gowghal, Co. Cork, Ireland, September 4, 1832, and died in Bridgeport, Conn., February 17, 1884.

PHILIP A. MARK, JR., was a farmer; in religion a Protestant, and in politics a Republican, "honest, upright and brave." He enlisted at French Creek, N. Y., August 9, 1862, in Co. D, 112th N. Y. Vol. Inf., as a private; was killed in the battle of Cold Harbor, Va., in June, 1864.

ALBA B. FOX was a blacksmith by trade, also a machinist; in religion a Protestant; not a partisan in politics.

GEORGE BROADBROOK was a man of excellent character, accomplished in his profession as painter and decorator; he was a member of the Episcopal Church; "upright and honorable in all his dealings;" in politics he was a Republican; he served three years and four months in the 17th Conn. Vol. Inf. during the War of the Rebellion; the above record is compiled from letters received from MRS. BROADBROOK.

891. Durfee, Delilah H. (Aaron M. 6th, Walter 5th, Peleg 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Daughter of Aaron M. and Jane (Butterfield) Durfee, of Benson, Vt., and French Creek, N. Y.; born in Arkwright, N. Y., October 22, 1840; living, 1904, at Mitchell, Neb.; married at Mina, N. Y., January 28, 1863, to DAVID MARK, of Mina, N. Y., son of Philip A. and Lydia (Rockwell) Mark; born in Mina, N. Y., January 27, 1832; died at Gering, Neb., November 25, 1899.

Their children were:

I.—LEONORA ALEXINA MARK, born in Mina, N. Y., February 18, 1864; educated in Belvidere, Neb. schools and in the High School at Hebron, Neb., and a member of the Christian Church; taught school for a number of terms; married August 9, 1883, in Hebron, Neb., to ROBERT CLINTON BOTTOM, of Kiowa, Neb., son of Joshua C. and Sarah (Thornton) Bottom; born in Bloomfield, Mo., September 13, 1854.

MR. BOTTOM was a Republican in politics; he and his oldest child were members of the M. E. Church in 1904, when all the family resided at Ruskin, Neb.

Their children were:

1st.—LEOLA ADELL BOTTOM, born in Kiowa, Neb., August 12, 1884; graduated in 1903 from the high school at Ong, Neb., and taught one term of school that year.

2d.—OWEN ALTON BOTTOM, born in Ruskin, Neb., May 25, 1888.

4th.—MYRTLE BOTTOM, born in Ruskin, Neb., March 19, 1892.

5th.—FOREST MARK BOTTOM, born in Ruskin, Neb., September 10, 1893.

II.—GEORGE ELLSWORTH MARK, born at French Creek, N. Y., March 14, 1866; removed to near Belvidere, Neb., with his parents in 1872, where his home was on a farm; he attended the district school and later high school at Hebron, Neb.; began teaching school when he was eighteen years old; graduated from the Normal Department of Fairfield College in 1889, and remained there a year as a tutor. Was principal of the Davenport, Neb., high school in 1892; removed to the western part of the State in the fall of 1893, where he taught school at Gering, and later published the Nebraska Homestead at that place. In spring of 1901 removed to Mitchell, Neb., and established the Mitchell Index, of which in 1904, he was editor and publisher. In politics he is practically non-partisan, but allies himself with reform movements and is strictly temperate in his habits.

He was married at Bayard, Neb., September 1, 1902, to MAGGIE L. WELLS, of Bayard, daughter of Elbridge H. and Mary (Smith) Wells; born in Vernon Co., Mo., September 26, 1873; she taught school, and the year before her marriage was the principal of the school at Bayard, Neb. MR. and MRS. MARK are members of The Church of Christ.

Their children were:

1st.—ELBRIDGE DURFEE MARK, born in Mitchell, Neb., December 20, 1903.

III.—HARTSON AMBROSE MARK, born at Belvidere, Neb., June 17 1875; living, 1905, at Lincoln, Neb.; unmarried. He was an attentive student from his boyhood, retiring from, rather than active, in social life; his quiet ways and habits assisted him much in an inclination to be an inventor. In 1896, for a period, at Gering, Neb., he was interested in a bicycle repair plant; at the same time was an assistant to his brother in the printing business, which was his choice of employment; but his health failing in 1897 as a result of typhoid fever, later he became interested in photography, and later at Alliance, Neb., established "The Demonstrator," an independent photo-magazine, removing in 1904, to Lincoln, Neb., to take up the management of the "Northwestern Photo Depot." While not a politician he is an interested observer of questions of public interest, and is a non-sectarian Christian in church affairs.

Mrs. MARK mentions her family as follows:

They removed from Mina, N. Y., to Belvidere, Neb., in January, 1872, and took up a homestead; Mr. Mark was a farmer; all the family are attendants and members of the Christian Church, and in politics are Prohibitionists; her father never had a drop of liquor in his house, and she has never known the taste of intoxicating drinks; she thinks the abstinence from its use was the result of her grandfather's attitude and her mother's teaching as to habits of life.

893. Durfee, Alice M. (Aaron M. 6th, Walter 5th, Peleg 4th, John 3d, Robert 2d, Thomas 1st). Daughter of Aaron M. and Jane (Butterfield) Durfee, of Benson, Vt., and French Creek, N. THOMAS DURFEE was prepared for college at East Greenwich, R. I., graduated from Brown University, after which he studied law in Providence, and was admitted to the bar in 1848. "In 1849 he became the reporter of the Decisions of the Supreme Court of Rhode Island, and discharged the duties of that functionary until 1854. In the latter year he was elected by the General Assembly a member of the Court of Magistrates for the City of Providence, and held the office by annual re-elections for six years, during all but one of which he was Presiding Justice." He was a member of the General Assembly of R. I. from Providence, being Speaker of the House from 1863 to 1865; in 1865 he was a member of the Rhode Island Senate. From 1865 to 1875 he was an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of R. I., and from 1875 to 1891 Chief Justice. "On March 14, 1891, he resigned this office, and passed the remainder of his life in dignified leisure, devoting no small part of his time to services of a patriotic, philanthropic, or educational nature."

He was a trustee of Brown University from 1875 to 1888. Chancellor from 1879 to 1888. Fellow from 1888 until his death. He received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from the University in 1875. He became a member of the Board of Trustees of the Providence Public Library, February 10, 1888, and was President of the Board from 1892 until his death; he edited and published the works of his father, and published various works of literature, law, and poetry, of which he was the author.

It was said of him that his public addresses were elegant in style, eloquent, thoughtful and impressive; his historical writings reveal great erudition, his poetry was graceful, varied as to subjects and moods, pervaded by purity, serenity, nobility of aspiration, and a devout religious spirit."

"Judge Durfee for many years attended religious worship at the First Baptist Church, of Providence, and now that he has passed from the activities of life, one can scarcely avoid reading a prophetic meaning into the following lines which he wrote and published 30 years before his death."

PEACE.

The earth is full of quiet,
All quiet are the skies,
Amid the quiet shadows
The quiet moonlight lies.

Into my soul the quiet,
A pure and perfect peace,
Comes like the blessed Sabbath
To bid my troubles cease.

Through time, through space I wander,
Freed of a weary load,
Yet sweetly rest embosomed
In the life and love of God.

BANKS FIELD, of South Portsmouth, R. I., son of Capt. Richard and Martha (Lawton) Field; born in Newport Co., R. I., December 30, 1810; died at Plano, Ill., November 26, 1852, and was buried there.

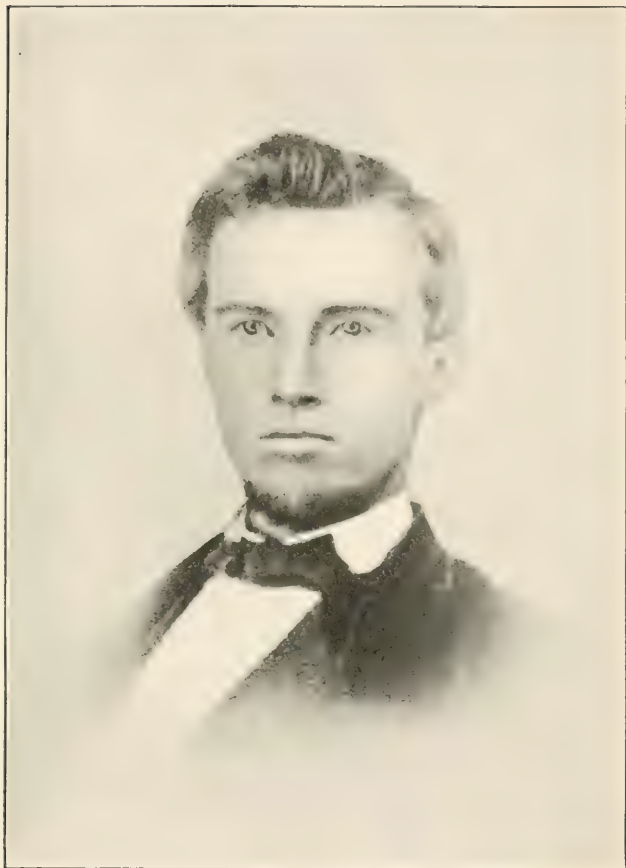

MR. FIELD lived with his parents on the farm in South Portsmouth, R. I., until a young man, when he went to New Jersey and spent some time with a MR. SHEFFIELD. At the time of his marriage he was a block printer in the cotton mills of Fall River, Mass.; when the inventions of machinery superseded his trade he followed farming in Tiverton, R. I.; for a number of years he leased the Humphrey Homestead Farm on Quaket Point, Tiverton, R. I.; during this time he was the administrator of the estate of his father-in-law, CHARLES DURFEE, ESQ. In 1852, having decided to seek a home in the West, he sold his farming outfit at public auction, and made a journey to the west where he bought 80 acres of land in the town of Bristol, Ill., returning and removing his family in August of that year to Illinois. The journey west was attended by a fearful disaster to the steamer Atlantic, the boat he and family had taken at Buffalo, N. Y., to go to Detroit, Mich., on the night of August 20th; about 2 o'clock the following morning, the propeller Ogdensburgh, crossing the lake, collided with the Atlantic, about six miles from shore; the disaster was attended by the loss of more than 300 lives, sinking the Atlantic. MR. FIELD and family, having taken state-rooms next to the hurricane deck, were all saved, but all the property intended for use in the new Illinois home went down with the vessel and was never recovered. A passing steamer took the surviving passengers on to Detroit, Mich.; from there they continued their journey by railroad to Chicago, Ill., where a sympathizing friend became interested in MR. FIELD's situation, and invited him to come with his family and spend a short time in his home, which he accepted; after a few day's stay in Bristol with MR. and MRS. W. W. MARSH (MRS. MARSH being a cousin of MRS. FIELD). The friend was MR. MARCUS A. STEWARD, a prosperous farmer living on a farm, which has since come to be a part of Plano, Ill. The day that MR. FIELD arrived at Mr. STEWARD'S home, he was stricken with paralysis, followed by a fever, of which after a few weeks he died, in the home of Mr. STEWARD, and was buried in the cemetery near by, leaving his widow and five dependent children without means of subsistence, in the hands of strangers, who were hospitable and kind. Mr. FIELD was highly respected in his native State and enjoyed the confidence of his neighbors, who showed their sympathy for him and his family in the days of their misfortune. When the Dorr Rebellion broke out in the State of Rhode Island some ten years before Mr. FIELD removed to the west, he shouldered his gun, and was with those who stood for the orderly government of his native State, as against Dorr and his followers.

Their children were:

I.—RICHARD FIELD, born in Tiverton, R. I., November 30, 1838; died in Field Hospital of the Union Army near New Hope Church, Georgia, May 29, 1864; he was the main support of his twice widowed mother; nevertheless his patriotism overmastered him; although two of his brothers were in the army, in 1862, he also enlisted in Co. H of the 89th Ill. Vol. Inf., known as the "Railroad Regiment," participating in all the engagements of his regiment, notably the battles of Chickamauga and Missionary Ridge, receiving wounds in an engagement on the 27th of May, 1864, near New Hope Church, Ga., which caused his death two days later; he was a prominent member of the Congregational Church of Bristol, Ill., the leader of the choir; he enjoyed the confidence and respect of all his comrades in the Army, and died with confiding faith in his Savior; his grave was carefully marked by his comrades, and later his remains were buried in section A, grave No. 857, National Cemetery, Marietta, Ga., where the writer was permitted to go in 1902 and see the grave with more than 10,000 other graves of those who fell in the defence of the Union in that vicinity.

II.—CHARLES DUFFEE FIELD, born in Tiverton, R. I., November 1, 1841. In September, 1861, he enlisted in Co. F, 13th Ill. Cav., and served more than three years; his

III.—WILLIAM WALLACE FIELD, born in Tiverton, R. I., January 18, 1844. Was adopted by the Rev. ROYAL REED, of Joliet, Ill., in 1853, and during the session of the Illinois Legislature, in 1855, a law was passed changing his name to WILLIAM FIELD REED; he was educated in the public schools of Joliet; enlisting when the War of the Rebellion came in Co. F, 13th Ill. Vol. Cav., his brother, CHARLES D.

FIELD, enlisting at the same time in the same company. From September, 1861, to October, 1862, they rode side by side in the ranks, and at the head of the company in nearly all its military movements; in October, 1862, both were sent to hospitals north on account of malarial fever. WILLIAM F. REED was sent to the U. S. General Hospital at Keokuk, Ia., where after regaining his health, he was detailed as a clerk in the office of the Surgeon in Charge. During the summer of 1863, with other comrades, he planned the raising of a regiment of colored men. Mr. REED was transferred from the 13th Ill. Cav. to become Q. M. Sergeant of the regiment, which was mustered into service at Benton Barracks, St. Louis, Mo., in December, 1863, as the 1st Ia. Inf. of African Descent, which was later the 60th U. S. Colored Inf. He was promoted 2d Lieut. in April, 1864, and 1st Lieut. in November following. The service of the regiment was rendered in and near Helena, Ark., from December, 1863, until the spring of 1865, when they removed to Little Rock, Ark. While at Little Rock, in April, 1865, Lieut. REED was appointed Adjutant, which position he held in October, 1865, when the regiment was mustered out of service.

After the war Mr. REED spent a few months at Eastman's Business College, at Chicago, Ill. For a number of years he engaged in commercial business on his own account, though without success, covering a period of 14 years from 1867 to 1881, while he resided at Creston, Ill.

In 1881, returning to Joliet, Ill., where he had lived in his youth, was for a greater portion of the following years the bookkeeper and cashier of what is now (1905) the Barrett Hardware Co.; was appointed a clerk in the Navy Department at Washington, D. C., in 1889, which position he held in 1905.

He was a member of the Sons of the Revolution, and also of the Sons of the American Revolution. In the Grand Army of the Republic he served as Commander of Geo. H. Thomas Post, No. 15, Dept. of the Potomac, in 1902. He was also a member of the Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the District of Columbia. In politics

Samuel (mariner) and Mary (Seabury) Seabury; born in Tiverton, R. I., August 7, 1815; died in Tiverton, R. I., July 31, 1899. When a young man he resided in New York City, and was engaged in portrait painting. "For 40 years prior to his death he had been a resident of Tiverton. He was postmaster many years. During the war he was assistant assessor of internal revenue." He was a well-informed man, genial and pleasant to meet, respected by his fellow townsmen, who often gave him position in office, where he most capably and acceptably rendered service.

Their children were (born in Tiverton, R. I.):

I.—SAMUEL SEABURY, born April 11, 1854; living, 1905, in Tiverton, R. I.; unmarried. He was a merchant, and for many years postmaster; he had always a kindly interest in the welfare of his native town, an affectionate and tender regard for his parents, giving to them thoughtful attention during the many years of disability of his father, who had been totally helpless for more than twenty years before his death.

II.—MARY JANE SEABURY, born February 22, 1856; unmarried. She was for many years Librarian of Whitridge Hall Library, of Tiverton, R. I., which place she continued to fill in 1905, finding time also to be of assistance in the post office and store with her brother SAMUEL.

III.—CHARLES LINCOLN SEABURY, born August 4, 1860; married in Bristol, R. I., January 26, 1887, to ELIZABETH OSBORNE GORHAM, daughter of Amos T., Jr., and Mary E. (Waldron) Gorham; born in Bristol, R. I., December 12, 1862; they were living, 1905, in Yonkers, N. Y.

Their children were:

1st.—LINCOLN GORHAM SEABURY, born November 26, 1887; died that day.

2d.—MARY RICHMOND SEABURY, born March 28, 1889.

Mr. CHARLES L. SEABURY was a prominent naval architect, an inventor of machinery adapted to marine navigation; ambitious for a place among the builders of the world's means of water transportation, he some years ago established business at Nyack, N. Y., afterwards consolidated with another company, and moved to the Harlem River, New York City. They have a world wide reputation as successful builders of vessels, having constructed fast steam yachts and torpedo vessels for the U. S. Navy. Mr. SEABURY is Vice-President of the consolidated company at this writing, 1905.

where he became a fur trader; had trading posts among the Indians, with headquarters and office in Leavenworth; in 1865 he established trading posts on the Missouri river as far as Fort Benton; had sutler stores and made contracts with the Government; he was associated with a Mr. PECK under the firm name of DURFEE and PECK; they had a line of steamboats to transport their goods. The very extended transactions of Mr. DURFEE in business so overtaxed his physical strength that his health began to fail in 1871. The following was written (in part) about him and printed in the Times at the time of his death: "He was a small man physically, but he wore a seven and a half hat on a well proportioned and strongly developed head, and he had one of those eyes which:

"Laughs at impossibilities,
And cries, It shall be done!"

Places of business were closed during his funeral; no such honors were ever paid to a private citizen at his death in Leavenworth before. The words of the text for his funeral sermon were: "And all the inhabitants did him honor at his death." 2d Chron., 32: 33.

"Life's labor done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies,
While heaven and earth combine to say,
'How blest the righteous when he dies.'"

Mr. DURFEE was married in Penfield, N. Y., November 24, 1852, to LUCIA M. HIGBIE, of Penfield, N. Y.; daughter of Nathan and Gulielma (Wing) Higbie; born in Duanesburg, N. Y., April 14, 1832; living, 1903, in Kansas City, Mo.

THAYER, of Palmyra; daughter of Smith and Elizabeth (Durfee) Thayer; born in Palmyra, N. Y., April 26, 1827; died at Grand Rapids, Mich., June 19, 1904; they had no children.

Mr. Durfee followed farming for a few years near Grand Rapids, Mich., where he had removed in 1853; he sold his farm in 1868, and from that time until his death was one of the leading citizens of Grand Rapids. In 1879 he established himself in the undertaker business, having been engaged previously in the manufacture of funeral goods; he presided over the 1st convention of funeral directors held in the United States; held the office of justice of the peace and town treasurer before coming to reside in Grand Rapids; in announcing his death The Grand Rapids Herald mentioned Mr. Durfee as follows: "he was gentlemanly, temperate in habits, and genial and affectionate in his domestic circle, and always had a warm and generous hand; for the needy. Mr. Durfee and his wife had long been members and earnest supporters of the Park Cong. Church. In politics he was always a Republican." The compiler of this work found no one more responsive to his applications, for record, to compile this history; he loved his kindred, and his life was an honor to his ancestors.

time his father failed in business; (quoting from the Dr s. letter written in May, 1896, I find he wrote) "I struck out for myself, began the study of medicine at Greene, N. Y., in 1840; taught school to pay my way, attended lectures in New York in the winter of 1843-4; graduated at Geneva, N. Y., January 27, 1846; after marrying, taught school two years at and near Rochester, N. Y.; lost my health and voice, and we came west for change of climate in September, 1848; from that time to 1873 my life was spent at Woodstock, Ill.; I first practiced medicine several years then started a drug business, made money, went into Banking, organized the 1st National Bank, managed it alone several years, including the war; finally lost my property and went to Chicago in 1873, and was there most of the time for 15 years as Deacon of Dr. LORIMER's Church, and Bible class teacher under B. F. JACOBS, etc., etc." Being afflicted with hay fever he came to live in Traverse City, Mich., about 1884, and spent the remaining years of his life in fruit farming; early in life he became a Christian and united with the Baptist Church, and with his wife was interested in teaching in the Sunday-Schools of the Church, while he often served as superintendent; in politics he was active with the Republican Party.

(By request of Mr. WILLIAM W. DUFFEE.)

"I should like to have said of my father, OTIS DUFFEE.

"His education was limited; he learned the trade of a sawyer, which occupation he followed all his life.

"In religion he was a Baptist; early in life joining the church, and was always a strong advocate of their religious creed. In politics he was Abolitionist, and was an earnest supporter of Abraham Lincoln.

"Although all his children were educated under the 'Rate Bill' school system, he advocated the free school system. It is a fact worthy of notice that four of his seven children were educated for teachers and were all engaged in the work at the same time.

"His habits in life were very simple. He never used tobacco or intoxicating drinks. Died fully believing in a Risen Redeemer."

He comes from an ancient Slavic family, which came to Europe early in the seventh century. After the fall of Bulgaria, the families of noble blood were forced to flee into the mountains to escape death under the Turkish government; they held high offices. The uncle and grandfather holding positions as commissioners for the Turkish army until their deaths. The religion of Bulgaria is that of the Eastern Church, but a few years after marriage Mr. Nikoloff's mother became a Protestant. This so enraged his father and the officials of the Church that a divorce was proclaimed, and the family name of Chervenushoff taken from them; for that reason they took the name of Nikoloff (meaning son of Nikola).

On coming to America in 1887, he became known by the name of Nikoloff, and is widely known by this name among business men. Recently the law has changed, so that he is entitled to his family name, so this is used on all legal documents as Subbo Nikoloff (Chervenushoff).

WILLIAM TALLMAN AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

The following record was not received in time to be printed in the 1st Vol. of this work. (See page 36, 1st Vol.)

WILLIAM TALLMAN was the 4th child of Benjamin and Patience (Durfée) Tallman, of Portsmouth, R. I., where he was born March 25, 1720. He died on his farm near Harrisonburg, Va., February 13, 1791. William Tallman was remembered in his father's will. (See page 37, 1st Vol.) The record in Rhode Island mentions his occupation, as also do the records of Berks Co., Pa., as a weaver, and in one sale of land it is stated he was an innkeeper, though usually he followed farming.

Early in life he probably came by the way of Monmouth and Burlington Counties, N. J. (a cousin, DR. STEPHEN TALLMAN, of R. I., having already settled in Monmouth Co., N. J.), to Berks Co., Pa., where he settled, and bought land and later removed to Rockingham Co., Va.

He married in Berks Co., Pa., October 20 (1740-2), to ANN LINCOLN, of Berks Co., Pa., who was a daughter of MORDECAI, who was a son of MORDECAI and SARAH (JONES) LINCOLN, and grandson of SAMUEL LINCOLN, of Hingham, Mass. ANN LINCOLN's father was the great-great-grandfather of PRESIDENT LINCOLN, through MORDECAI's son JOHN; she was born (probably in Chester Co., Pa.), March 8, 1725; and died on the farm near Harrisonburg, Va., December 22 (about 1812), and was buried there beside her husband.

Their children were (born in Berks Co., Pa.):

I.—PATIENCE TALLMAN, born October 5, —; died February 23, 1761.

II.—BENJAMIN TALLMAN, born January 9, 1745.

III.—MARY TALLMAN, born May 22, 1747; died when four years old.

IV.—SARAH TALLMAN, born December 19, 1749; died in August, 1770.

V.—THOMAS TALLMAN, born September 18, 17—; died May 15, 1753.

VI.—MARY TALLMAN, born February 11, 175—; died when four years old.

VII.—THOMAS TALLMAN, born May 12, 1757; died when six weeks old.

VIII.—WILLIAM TALLMAN, born September —, —; died when eleven months old.

IX.—ANN TALLMAN, born March 10, —; died when eighteen months old.

X.—HANNAH TALLMAN, born September —, —; died when three weeks old.

XI.—ANNA TALLMAN, born July 17, 176—; died when fifteen months old.

WILLIAM TALLMAN states in the Bible, from which the above record is copied, that he bought the Bible in 1770, and paid £2 2s. and 6d. for it; the record was injured by the Bible passing through a fire in which the margin of the leaves were charred, and broken; and in that way some of the dates were lost by the crumbling of the paper; a large portion of the record as found in the Bible has been verified and supplemented from other sources.

The family and descendants of Benjamin Tallman, the only child who survived his parents and married, were as follows:

BENJAMIN TALLMAN, born in Berks Co., Pa., January 9, 1745; died near Canal Winchester, O., June 4, 1820; married in Berks Co., Pa., November 9, 1764, to DINAH BOONE, of Berks Co., Pa., daughter of Benjamin and Susanna (——) Boone; born in Berks Co., Pa., May 3-10, 1749, and baptized at Morlotton Church, August 6, 1753; died near Canal Winchester, O., July 25, 1824; she was a first cousin of DANIEL BOONE, the noted western pioneer (see manuscripts of the Boone family in the historical library at Madison, Wis.); their fathers lived on adjoining farms.

Toward the close of the War of the Revolution many Berks Co., Pa., families followed their old neighbors, the BOONES, HANKS, and LINCOLNS, who had already migrated to the south and west, and with whom they were more or less closely connected by marriage. Among these the TALLMANS, HARRISONS, HENTONS, EVANS, and MORRIS, BRUMFIELD, and other families went to the valley of Va.; the Tallmans settled near by the Lincolns, in Augusta, later Rockingham Co., almost adjoining land owned by JOHN LINCOLN.

BENJAMIN TALLMAN removed to Va. in 1779, after he had served an enlistment in the Pa. militia (see Vol. 6, page 314, 3d series, Pa. Archives), and later in Va. he joined DeBest's Troop of the 1st Partisan Legion, under Col. Armand (see Pa. Archives, Vol. XI, 2d series, pp. 140, 145, 146, for which service he was entitled to a bounty in land, as shown by military records at Richmond, Va. About 1810, the date of his land grant, he removed to Ohio, and most of his married children came with him; he lived near Canal Winchester, Franklin Co., O., at the close of his life.

Their children were:

1st.—WILLIAM TALLMAN, born in Berks Co., Pa., January 27, 1766; died in Royalton, Fairfield Co., O., in April, 1850; married in Rockingham Co., Va., June 3, 1786, to PHEBE HENTON, daughter of George and Elizabeth (——) Henton; born in Berks Co., Pa., June 15, 1765; died in Pickaway Co., O., July 17, 1833.

10th.—DIANAH BRUMFIELD, born July 30, 1799.

11th.—BENJAMIN BRUMFIELD, born July 1, 1801.

12th.—SAMUEL BRUMFIELD, born March 23, 1803.

13th.—ABIGAIL BRUMFIELD, born October 1, 1804.

14th.—DAVID BRUMFIELD, born December 29, 1805; died January 3, 1806.

15th.—DAVID BRUMFIELD, born June 17, 1807.

16th.—JOHN BRUMFIELD, born September 25, 1808; died December 16, 1885.

17th.—HANNAH BRUMFIELD, born August 11, 1810.

The above family came to Ohio in 1820; all trace of descendants leaves impression that the family is extinct.

3d.—SARAH TALLMAN, born in Berks Co., Pa., April 12, 1769; died in Peru, Ind., June 3, 1844; married in Rockingham Co., Va., 1784-85, to THOMAS HENTON, of Rockingham Co., Va., son of William and (—) Henton; born in (probably) Berks Co., Pa., August 17, 1764; died at his home near Hillsboro, O., July 1, 1829.

THOMAS HENTON, who married SARAH TALLMAN, was the son of William and ——— Henton, or Hinton, the name having been spelled both ways by the various branches of the family in America since the time of their emigration from England.

"WILLIAM HENTON came of English ancestors, who settled in Berks County, Pennsylvania, he having gone from that place before the Revolution to what is now Rockingham County, Va., where he died about 1786. He had sons: WILLIAM, EVAN, JOSEPH, PETER, and THOMAS, and three daughters, one of whom was named REBECCA.

PETER HINTON, son of William, had children, all born between 1786 and 1804: WILLIAM, EVAN, JOSEPH, PETER, THOMAS, JOHN, PHEBE, JESSE, DAVID, and MOSES. The son DAVID founded the town of Hinton, W. Va., where his son, WILLIAM HINTON, was living in 1900. There is evidence to show that THOMAS HENTON, who married SARAH TALLMAN, was a first cousin of PHEBE HENTON, who married WILLIAM TALLMAN, brother of SARAH.

With the exception of THOMAS, the children of WILLIAM HENTON, so far as is known, remained in Virginia, where many of their descendants are still residing.

The Revolutionary records of Virginia contain the names of SPENCER, LEWIS, and WILLIAM HINTON, and CHRISTOPHER HENTON. One

WILLIAM HINTON was a member of the Virginia State navy for three years prior to July 21, 1783. He is thought to have been a brother of THOMAS. The Bedford County, Va., militia lists contain the name of WILLIAM HINTON, 1758, Capt. JOHN PHELPS' Company.

Among the Philadelphia, Pa., wills, book "H," p. 438, is found that of GEORGE HINTON, of Exeter, Phila. Co., proved Nov. 14, 1747, which mentions "wife PERSIS, children GEORGE, THOMAS, JOHN, JOSEPH, ROBERT, CATHARINE, HANNAH, ALICE, WILLIAM, and RUTH." Also, Philadelphia wills, book "B," p. 339, will of WILLIAM HINTON, dated Jan. 25, 1702-03, proved January 26, 1703-04, mentions "wife MARGARET, living in Bristol, England; children WILLIAM and ELEANORE; mother and brother PHILIP, living in the parish of Chiltern, England; sisters MARY RANDALL, ELIZABETH HINTON, and DEBORAH HINTON."

In the marriage licenses issued in Pennsylvania before 1790, are: Ap., 1747; JOHN HINTON, and SARAH SHERWOOD; June 25, 1776, MARY HINTON, and THOMAS W. COLLINS; Nov. 16, 1733, LYDIA HINTON and WM. WENTWORTH; and in 1747, MOSES HINTON and MARY LEEDS, both of which marriages took place in Christ Church, Phila. The Philadelphia Monthly Meeting records of the Friends' Church contain the marriage notice, 6-29-1718, of WILLIAM HINTON and JANE KNUBLY.

THOMAS HENTON, who was born Aug. 17, 1764, moved from Rockingham County, Va., in 1803, to the west fork of Brush Creek; in 1804 going to Ohio. Mrs. SARAH (TALLMAN) HENTON removed to Peru, Ind., about 1842, after the arrival of her sons BENJAMIN, SYLVESTER, THOMAS, and ELAM. The children of Thomas and Sarah Henton were:

I.—WILLIAM HENTON, born Dec. 6, 1786, in Rockingham County, Va., died in 1874, in Danville, Ind. He married SARAH RICHARDS of West Virginia, who was born in 1791, and died 1874, in Danville, Ind. Their children were: 1st.—CYNTHIA HENTON. 2d.—SERENA HENTON, who married ——— TODD, and had a daughter, who married a Presbyterian minister named STEELE. 3d.—MILTON HENTON. 4th.—NEWTON HENTON, who was a doctor of medicine, and died in Oregon in 1889; he married CAROLINE HOGAN, in 1847, and among their children was NEWTON J. HENTON, who was born in Iowa, and married, having two children, and was city recorder of Albany, Oregon, in 1897.

IV.—WILLIAM TAYLOR HENTON, born Sept. 4, 1848, in Cincinnati, O.; married June 13, 1881, in Nebraska. IDA RYAN, formerly of Meads-ville, Penn., who was born in 1861. MR. HENTON'S parents moved to Indiana before he was a year old, and died while he was still quite young. At about the age of 21 he went to the then territory of Nebraska, to what is now Red Willow County, almost in the center of the great American desert. The years between 1873 and 1879 were mostly spent by him in farming, fighting grasshoppers, hunting buffalo for their pelts, and, in the intervals, freighting between Sidney, Neb., and the Black Hills. In the spring of 1875, when on the verge of starvation, as MR. HENTON himself expressed it, he set out on foot across a wild, trackless country, for North Platte City, 110 miles northward, in search of work. Here he joined a government expedition as a teamster, and assisted in building Ft. Sheridan, on the site of the Spotted Tail Indian agency, on the boundary between Nebraska and Dakota. In 1879, MR. HENTON settled down on his farm near Danbury, Neb., which he had homesteaded at an earlier date, and where he now lives with his family. The land has been added to until the property is a handsome one, abundant success having attended the owner's business of farming and stock-raising.

MR. HENTON was twice elected county treasurer, and has refused other positions of honor. The children are:

a.—WINNIE T. HENTON, born March 19, 1882; married in 1902, EDWARD ENO; living in Danbury, Neb., in 1904.

b.—WILBUR S. HENTON, born Sept. 25, 1884.

c.—BURR M. HENTON, born April 22, 1886.

f.—REED MCKINLEY HENTON, born Jan. 20, 1894.

g.—ELIZABETH HENTON, born June 13, 1896.

h.—NANCY HENTON, born January 1, 1900; died January 28, 1900.

i.—HARRIET HENTON, born Aug. 19, 1901.

j.—AUDREY HENTON, born July 26, 1904.

V.—NANCY EMMA HENTON, born April 15, 1852, in WARREN, IND.; married in Oxford, Ind., EDWIN PHARES; in 1872 the couple accompanied MRS. PHARES' brother and sister, RICHARD ALLEN and ANNA E. HENTON (now MRS. MESSNER), to Nebraska, where they all braved the hardships of pioneer life, including the Indian troubles of 1878, and extensive prairie fires, which devastated the country for hundreds of miles around. An epidemic of diphtheria carried off the two oldest Phares daughters, AGATHA and DELLA, and on April 7, 1886, the mother, NANCY EMMA, died. In 1904, the following children lived in Montana: ELARD, unmarried; HERBERT and LENNA, who are both married; and ANNA, whose husband is DANIEL O'BRIAN. The second son, MILTON TALLMAN PHARES, lived lately in Coffeyville, Kas., married, with one child.

VI.—SARAH ELIZABETH HENTON, born April 10, 1856, in Warren, Ind.; died Feb. 23, 1863, near Attica, Ind.

2d.—JOSEPH ALLEN HENTON, born Dec. 22, 1816, in Ohio; died Oct. 8, 1869, at Clarinda, Iowa, and was buried at Tecumseh, Neb., where his wife was afterwards interred. He and his brother, MILTON TALLMAN, both died members of the Methodist Church. JOSEPH ALLEN HENTON married, in Ohio, May 7, 1845, MARTHA BONNER SALE, of XENIA, Ohio; born June 6, 1819; died April 28, 1875; she was the daughter of the Rev. JOHN SALE, a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and Bishop ASBURY's coadjutor. Their children were:

I.—WILBUR FISKE HENTON, born April 20, 1846; died May 22, 1849.

IV.—BENJAMIN HENTON, born June 9, 1793, in Rockingham County, Va., died March 28, 1863, in Peru, Indiana. He accompanied his parents from Virginia to Adams County, O., in 1804; later to Franklin Co., O.; thence to Highland Co., O.; going to Fayette Co., O., in 1817, where he began practising medicine. In 1820 he was elected to the Ohio State Legislature from Fayette County, and was appointed a delegate to the convention that nominated General JACKSON for President in 1824. DR. HENTON filled the office of treasurer for Fayette County six terms—twelve years. In 1829, he became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Many of the family have been adherents of that faith, especially among the older branches. THOMAS, BENJAMIN's father, was notably zealous therein. DR. HENTON, having married in 1821, he took his family to Peru, Ind., in 1837, where his medical practice soon spread over Miami and adjoining counties. He was elected to the Indiana State Senate in 1850; to the House of Representatives in 1845, and again to the House in 1853. He served in the War of 1812, in CAPT. To the Subscribers and Friends of this Work:

The author wishes to express his gratitude to those who made it possible for him (through the money paid by them for copies of the work) to place in printed form the results of years of study and research for the data contained in the first and second volumes of this Durfee history.

And while all that could be expected has been printed, relative to those descendants of Thomas Durfee who have record evidence to sustain their claim of lineage; having compiled the record of those who claim to be descendants through tradition, and are without recourse at this time to data in written, or printed form, to sustain a claim as descendants; and as these people have furnished the data, and assisted to produce the work thus far as subscribers, offers to put this record in good form to be printed as a third volume, if a sufficient number of copies are subscribed for at $5.00 per copy, to cover cost of printing and binding; and any descendant wishing to have the picture of himself, or his deceased parent printed, may have this done by furnishing a photograph, and five dollars to pay the cost of cut, and printing the picture in the book.

In the third volume attention will be given to any correction or extension of record found in the first and second volumes, providing the person thus applying becomes a subscriber for the book.

HOW TO READ THESE BOOKS.

In consulting the work please give good attention to the indexes, and before giving out an opinion as to errors, examine the addenda to both books, printed herewith, correcting all errors made known to the compiler.

HOW TO GET THESE BOOKS.

You will find below the address of the author, who will be pleased to have you write to him if you desire copies of the work, and he will supply you, or inform you of the dealer or agent that can do so. The prices are $7.00 for each volume. To dealers a discount will be made for their service in securing sales. Have your dealer in books apply for you.
